

George LeRoy Brush

June 7, 2008

George LeRoy Brush was born September 2, 1947 in Oak Park, Illinois to George S. and Jeane (Crawford) Brush. The family moved around quite a bit while George was young, but the two places he most loved were Missoula, Montana and Guam. As a young boy, George would spend his time fishing or doing all sorts of outdoor activities. He also enjoyed singing, reading, and learning bits of trivia. George graduated from high school in Cresco, Iowa in 1965, and then went on to earn his Bachelor's Degree in English from Cornell College in 1969.

George married Maureen Moody on December 18, 1976 at the Winsor Presbyterian Church in Des Moines, Iowa, and to this union, two children were born; George Benjamin (Ben) and Kelsey Jeane. The family had made their home in Des Moines before settling in Elkhorn, Nebraska.

George has worked as a project manager for the Veterans Administration Hospital in Omaha for several years. He has also been active with the Polycystic Kidney Disease Foundation and the Elkhorn Hills United Methodist Church choir. George still tried to find time to do some reading and fishing, and in addition to the church choir, he enjoyed Bible studies and fellowship, but he especially liked spending time with his grandson, Caleb. His family will remember George as a loving, caring, compassionate man. He was an animal lover and an organ donor, but a bad joke teller. And he was a faithful follower of Jesus. George loved his family, didn't mind hard work, and was always willing to help others. He was a great friend, husband, father, grandfather, and donor.

George passed away on Saturday, June 7, 2008 at the Nebraska Medical Center at the age of 60 years, 9 months, and 5 days. He is preceded in death by his father, and sister Binnie Brush. George is survived by his wife Maureen, son and daughter-in-law Ben and Amber Brush of Springfield, NE, daughter Kelsey Brush of Phoenix, grandson Caleb Brush, mother Jeane Brush of Des Moines, IA, brothers; Ivan and Carl Brush both of Des Moines, IA, and sister Brooksie Miller of Maxwell, Iowa.

Tribute Wall

“ George LeRoy Brush

December 10, 2022 at 09:12 AM