“ Dear Doug, Janet, Kendall, Kylie, Kaleb and Kaden: We are profoundly saddened to see Jerry's obituary in today's Omaha World-Herald. Our hearts go out to you. Please know the Kroghs are praying for you as you mourn Jerry's loss. Knowing what kind of tremendously gifted son he and Kay raised, it is obvious Jerry loved the Lord and his family more than anything. That's a tremendous legacy and I am sure Jerry was (Kay is) very proud of you, your family, and how you've passed on that legacy, Doug. Per Aspera Ad Astra

“ Doug, Janet and children: We just learned of your father's passing and please know that our prayers will be for grace and comfort in this difficult time. Rarely a day goes by after five years when I don't recount a lesson learned or a memory from my father. Though I only met your dad once, I am certain he is proud of you Doug for all the gifts you share with your family, friends and colleagues.

“ Read the article about Louisville's new superintendent shortly before we got the email about Jerry's death. I was looking forward to "talking school" with Jerry and discussing personnel at Louisville and DC West. I'll miss him, but take comfort in knowing he's with the Lord (and his shoulder no longer hurts!).
