

Glorie Dayle Meador

December 18, 1959 - May 30, 2011

God blessed us with an amazing gift when he showed us His true grace and love through Glorie. A wife, mother, best friend, sister, daughter, aunt, cousin, coach, mentor, teacher, seamstress, gardener, homemaker, true believer and caregiver only begin to characterize one of the most beautiful people ever to grace this earth.

Her physical presence will be missed every day but her love, dedication, and strong will conquers all and will thrive through her indelible legacy.

Glorie loved her husband Leonard and three kids Tara, Audra, and Colton with all of her heart and soul. She dedicated her life and energy to her family and home. Selflessly, Glorie put others first and only asked for Love in return.

Material things were never of value. Time with the ones she loved and the people who loved her was what she truly cherished. Glorie's fighting spirit and undying love and support will uplift and strengthen those who had the privilege of knowing her.

Three things will last forever--faith, hope, and love--and the greatest of these is Love.

“ To Glorie's family: Please know our prayers are with each of you. We cannot imagine what you have been through. I had the privilege of attending high school with her, and know she was a fighter. Tim and I are thanking God that she is now in the arms of Jesus. God be with you all.

“ To all of the Meador Family~ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this sad time. To Colton, Audra, and Tara, I can't imagine how much you miss your Mother but I know that she loved each one of you soooo much. I truly believe that "The beauty of love never fades. It lives on &#226;€" an everlasting source of strength and peace." I have faith that your Mom will continue to be that source of strength for all of you forever.
