

Grant Isaac Stanley

November 6, 2024 - October 18, 2025

Grant Isaac Stanley was called home to be with his Heavenly Father on Saturday October 18th. He passed peacefully in his parent's arms.

Grant's life was a blessing to all who knew him. Despite the many challenges he faced, Grant was constantly filled with joy, happiness, and love. His smile could light a room and brought joy to all around him. Grant loved his family with all his heart. He is survived by his parents Sam and Stephanie and his beloved siblings Emily, Joe, and twin brother Micah.

Grant's battle with congenital heart disease was a part of his story and did not define him. In the face of many surgeries and procedures, Grant's joyous spirit permeated all of the trials and tribulations. He loved his friends at the Children's Hospital Cardiac Care Unit, and his happiness and contagious smile made him very popular amongst all staff. Grant loved his music box, bumblebee toys, Elmo books, and his wagon rides around the CCU floor. The doctors and nurses of the CCU were Grant's heroes, and we can never thank them enough for all of their work.

We were very fortunate to have great times with Grant in our family home. He loved spending time with his siblings, rolling around with his twin brother and fighting over "the cube", "wrestling" with his big brother Joe, and having his big sister Emily read him stories. Grant loved going on walks, and sitting on the swing on the front porch. He and Micah loved watching “Wheel of Fortune” after family dinners. Grant also loved spending time with his grandparents, Grandma Iris, Grammy (Stacy) and Grampy (Rusty). Grant loved his family with all his heart.

Grant was such a gift to us as parents. He forever changed our lives for the better, we love him with all of our hearts, and we have learned so much from him in the short time he was with us. Grant taught us to find the joy in life regardless of your circumstance, and he taught us to focus on the things that matter most in life, faith, family, and helping others. Grant now rests in the arms of Jesus, and while our hearts break to have to say goodbye to him for now, we know we will see him again.
