“ When our Christmas letter to Gretchen was returned yesterday, Steve searched the internet & found that the Lord Jesus had called Gretchen home in February. We are very sorry for your loss & the empty spot it leaves in your lives. We are thankful for Gretchen's witness to her faith in Jesus, even to us, whom she did not know. She bought CS Storm Cloud from us. We are thankful that he had a home where he was loved & had a job to do. Should you ever be aware that Stormy is somewhere he is not wanted, please let us know.

“ Gretchen was really one in a million. She always put her love for her animals well above anything else. She was a wonderful person that could never be forgotten. She touched many lives including my own. I will forever thank her for everything she has taught me. As sad as it is to lose her she is home now stirring up trouble with the Black, Moonlight and Shadow

“ I was thinking that since my grandchildren no longer do eggs, I would call Gretchen and see if I could get eggs from her again...we worked together at Gallup and Gretchen was one of the nicest people I knew there. We had a lot of talks about Jesus and Heaven, so I am comforted because I'm sure she is there. I hope that comforts you, too!

Gretchen and I ran into each other around town now and then after we both left Gallup. Gretchen was always thinking of others. She will be missed here on earth, but I am sure there was applause in Heaven when she arrived! :-)

“ So sorry to hear of Gretchen's passing. She came into my shop, Tack and Togs, often. You could tell she thought more of her horses and her students than she did about herself. So sorry for your loss. God has gained quite the horse keeper in heaven!

“ We will miss you Gretchen. You were kind to my daughters, taught them quite a lot about horses, and life, and we'll always remember you for that. Your example of living a frugal, humble life is something we could all learn from.

“ To "Gretchen's" family - I am so very sorry for your loss. I am so saddened to lose my friend. We had some wonderful moments together. We shared a love of horses. I will miss her terribly, and hope and pray that we will meet again in Heaven.
