“ Gunther has been part of my family for almost my entire life. As a kid our families would get together. Brent and Jamie I am so sorry for the loss of your Dad. He was a proud veteran, one who suffered much for his country. In spite of that he loved his family, he was a loyal friend and certainly someone to look up to. Rest in Peace dear Gunther you will be missed.

“ I knew Gunther to be a man who suffered greatly due to the lost of his beloved first wife and the love of his life, Diane. To them was borne his sons Brent and Jamie, the love he had for his sons was evident in our conversations at the Valley Y and throughout my over 30 years as his neighbor. His sons were in many ways truly their Fathers sons. We spent many years going to baseball games and school events. He was a good guy with always an interesting personality.
