“ *Harold was my foreman at Valmont in "Tool-Die".
He was a great boss; and a good Christian man.
May he rest in peace. Your brother in Christ.*

*My condolences to the family.

“ *I was so sorry to read of your father's passing. I sang in the choir with your dad and mother many years ago at the Fremont Alliance Church. I miss those times.
My sympathy to you, your mother, and families on the loss of a special husband, father, and grandfather. He and your mother were some of my best friends there at the Church.*

“ Mary & Family:

We are sincerely sorry to read of Herald's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family during this difficult time. We only have the fondest of memories of his hard work and setting up of display walls for showing off your handy work and his hard work in helping clients get settled in their new digs with the installation of the visual touches that made their house a home.

“ Mary and family,

I am so sorry to hear about Harold. I loved talking to him and missed seeing him and Mary at church recently. I have to help teach a class tonight at church, so I can't make the visitation. Please know I am thinking of you and praying for comfort. May you be comforted by the good memories you have.

“ A wonderful Uncle, Husband, Father and friend to all. Lived his life in a way I wish we all could copy. But, there was only one Uncle Harold.

I am very sad for Mary and the rest of the family, especially Tom as I know what kind of relationship he had with Harold.

But I rejoice in the fact that Harold is with his Lord and Savior having no pain or sadness.

I'm sure Harold has visited my Mother and they are praising almighty God in perfect voice.

Oh what a day that will be!

“Harold was truly an exceptional Christian. A one-man welcoming committee; a gifted singer with a passion for music; behind-the-scenes servant; wise mentor; the team-mate who, along with Mary's gifts of teaching and mentoring, led many to Christ and raised 3 godly sons. Harold was an example of the godliness that comes from a life surrendered to Christ. His imprint continues to echo through the generations and his legacy will only be fully accounted by Christ. Linda and I have been blessed immeasurably by the faithfulness of Harold and Mary Ehly. We can't repay it but have tried to pass it on.

Our sincere wishes for blessing, comfort and rejoicing as the family remembers.
