

Harold Glen Gibson

May 17, 1942 - December 12, 2018

Harold Glen Gibson was born May 17, 1942 in Franklin, Kentucky to Douglas and Mary (Horn) Gibson. He grew up in Franklin, where he attended school, and enjoyed playing baseball through high school.

Harold married Gladys Alma Fedde on May 16, 1970 in Omaha, Nebraska. In addition to his two sons, Ronnie and Gary, Harold and Gladys were the proud parents of 6 children; Tracy, Kimberly, Patrick, Kelli, Jamie, and Ashley. The family made their home in Kentucky, Tennessee, and Nebraska.

Harold worked as a van driver for the railroad for many years, and was also self-employed, working odd jobs. He was proud of being Kentucky born and raised, and loved cheering for his Kentucky Wildcat basketball team, and of course, his favorite color was blue. Harold was also a baseball fan, and was a fan of the New York Yankees. He enjoyed playing softball, and had a life-long love of working on cars. His favorite foods were hamburgers, fries, and pizza, and his favorite restaurants were Arby's, KFC, and (when back in Kentucky) Krystal. One of Harold's favorite past-times was to go to Penny's Diner for coffee, and see who was there to visit with. Harold will be remembered as a funny, humble, kind, forgiving, and loyal man.

Harold died at the Methodist Fremont Health Center on December 12, 2018 at the age of 76 years, 6 months, and 26 days. He was preceded in death by his
