“ Thinking of you and your family at this time saw it in the paper last night sorry I didnt make it to the memorial at Maple Ridge I work at a school and saw the times were 1-3 and not off work till 3:30 would have wanted to make it, Its been 1 year Aug. 2, that my mom passed away. they sure loved living there at Maple Ridge and seeing each other it was a nice place. Sure not many of the Dolls left on my moms side of the family. Will be thinking of you and Helen these next days to come.

“ We at the Fraternal Order of Eagles remember Helen for her dedication and generosity of spirit. She did hours and hours of volunteer work for the Eagles and we remember her with love.

May God give you comfort at this time of sorrow.

*In Fraternalism and Sympathy,
Janis Thomas, Past Grand Auxiliary Officer
South Omaha Eagles #154*
