

Jack Norman Jensen

March 10, 1933 - August 4, 2023

Jack Norman Jensen passed away on August 4th 2023 at Providence Place Memory Care in Fremont, NE. at the age of 90. He was a loving husband of 62 years to Frances Jensen and had 4 grown children, 7 grandchildren and 1 great grandson.

Born in Irvington, NE he was the son of Alfred and Marie Jensen. He graduated from Irvington High School and joined the Army. After completing his military service, he opened Jensen Service Center in 1956 with his brother Bob and eventually welcomed his younger brother Roy to the business. After 40 years of ownership, he sold the business to his sons Mike and Dave who still own and operate it today.

Jack will always be remembered for his bigger than life smile and laugh! If you were to ask Jack where his happy place is he would always tell you his cabin on Ridgewood Lake that he referred to as his "little piece of paradise". Jack also loved snowmobiling in the mountains at Togwotee Mountain Lodge and flat land riding in Okoboji. One thing that all the Jensen boys have in common is a love for anything with a motor. Aside from snowmobiling, Jack loved boating, jet skiing and ATV riding and also always loved hunting and fishing. Jack is preceded in death by his parents Alfred and Marie Jensen, brothers Bob and Roy and granddaughters Jessica Haith and Brecken Jensen. He is survived by his beloved wife Frances (Sedlacek) Jensen and children: Debby Layman (fiancé Tom) Jamie and great grandson Justice, Susan Anderson (Marty) Parker & Sammie, Mike Jensen (Kristi) Abby & Colt and David Jensen

(Gigi) Kaylin & Kalli.
