

James William Ellison

December 5, 1942 - March 9, 2010

James William Ellison was born December 5, 1942 in Seattle, Washington to Wilmer “Butch” and Virginia (McFarlane) Ellison. The family moved near Mead, Nebraska when Jim was young, and he attended school there, graduating from Mead High School in 1960. Jim went on to attend the University of Nebraska in Lincoln.

Jim married Hermine Kay Storm on August 2, 1962 at the Lutheran Church in Yutan, Nebraska, and to this union, 5 children were born; Deborah, Cynthia, James William Jr., Mary, and David Storm Ellison. The family has always made their home in the Yutan and Mead, Nebraska areas.

Jim has worked as both a farmer and a carpenter throughout his life. He was also the treasurer of the Marietta Presbyterian Cemetery Association, now a cemetery without a church. Jim was active within his church, serving on the church board, teaching Sunday school, and leading Bible studies.

Jim enjoyed several different hobbies. He collected guns, tools, and pocket knives both new and old. Jim enjoyed traveling, was an avid pilot who loved to fly, and was always willing to help when others asked. He was at his happiest while spending time with friends, eating out, and watching their weekly western movies with Ron, while Hermine and Sherri played Scrabble in the kitchen.

Jim passed away peacefully at his home near Mead, in his sleep on March 9, 2010 at the age of 67 years, 3 months, and 4 days. He is preceded in death by his parents Butch and Virginia Ellison. Jim is survived by his wife Hermine of Mead, children Deborah and Jim Virgl of Yutan and their children Alicia, Brett, and Jacob; Cynthia and Frank Pleskac of Yutan and their children Joshua, Jessica, Julia, and Joel; James, Jr. and Kristin Ellison of Yutan and their children; Trevor, Alex, and William; Mary and Corey Sorensen of Yutan and their children Chandler and Colby; and David and Glenda Ellison of Omaha and their daughter Whitney, and sister Sharon Sinner of Fremont.

“ *Hermine and family,
We are so sad to hear of the loss of Jim, but we know that he is at Home with the Lord. He is enjoying the reward of his faith and we will all be together someday. We will miss him so much though, right now. Love to you all.
