

James Warren Haines

September 26, 1941 - January 21, 2022

James Warren Haines was born on September 26, 1941 to Warren and Anna Haines (Janosek) in Omaha, Nebraska. He lived his whole life in the Omaha/Elkhorn area. He attended Madison grade school and South High. When young, his playground was Mandan Park. He loved biking, fishing, and running around getting into mischief with his best friend John Slezak and the rest of the SOBs (South Omaha Boys).

Jim and Karen were married at Cross Lutheran Church on October 22, 1960 and were faithfully united for 61 years. They had four daughters. Because he never had a son, he joined Big Brothers and mentored Paul for many years. He was a member of Westside Church for 42 years and served as a Deacon. Jim always hustled and was hard-working. He started out working at the Omaha Stockyards, then worked for OPPD before joining Cahoon Sales. He loved traveling the world and enjoyed his home in the Lake of the Ozarks. Jim and Karen were snowbirds, and spent the last 13 winters in Gulf Shores, Alabama.

Jim was promoted to his heavenly home with Jesus on January 21, 2022. He was surrounded by his wife, Karen, and their four daughters, Susan (Tim), Melinda (Chuck), Nianna (Mike), and Rebecca (Jason). He loved his grandchildren, Zachary (Jenna), Christopher, Kailey (Ian), Alissa (Chase), Matthew (Hannah), Mallory, Bailey, and Avery, and his great-grandchildren, Elijah, Mason, Adalena, Kinlee, Olivia, and Carter.

*What a lovely tribute to Mr. Haines.
So glad to hear all of the daughters and son-in-laws beautiful comments as well as his beloved longtime friend.
Certainly he has lived a Christ filled life leaving a beautiful legacy.
Lord bless you all as you “hustle, hustle, hustle” to someday see him again in eternity.*

Karen, I am saddened by the loss of Jim while recalling the joy and happiness he provided you and the family for so many years. I so enjoyed yours and Jim's company particularly while you two were assisting me with the caring of my mother. God's grace shined down on Jim and now he has gone to heaven to be with the Lord. You were blessed Karen with a Godly man who loved you very much. Savor the memories while glorifying God's grace.

So sorry I couldn't be there today. I was on an important sales call that couldn't be moved. I grieved over having to do this but as was told, Jim wouldn't want to miss an opportunity to sell. So with a heavy heart I didn't.

Jim told me of his times in the bleachers and watching his girls. He said he never really followed sports but he knew all of them took some form of hustle. So that is what he use to cheer.

He told me of the cassette tapes he would make for his daughters while he was traveling. What a neat idea.

One of the lessons Jim taught me was actions speak louder then words. On my first ever product show Jim told me to make sure I have a nice Cahoon Sales shirt and long dress pants with dress shoes for each day of the show. On the last day Jim shows up in shorts and sneakers! He just smiled and said "you'll learn". He was right! I never let him forget this.

After he retired we did lunches every now and then. In the beginning he'd give me plenty of work advice. But as time went on that changed over to life advice. Gonna miss those times.
