“ Our deepest condolences Sharon to you and your family. I am speechless hearing this news.

A cute story about Jim:

Sharon and Jim had just gotten married. My husband Mark and I were over to their apartment for an evening. Sharon was a tad bit upset. I inquired what was the matter. She said to Jim, "tell them what you did". Well, Jim had been out with a few of the fellows the past weeknight and was engaged in a game of poker. Evidently Jim didn't have the best hand and lost a bit of his stake. Sharon was so upset, as they were saving for a new house. She made him go out and get another job until he put the funds back into the kitty. I don't think we will ever forget that...obviously...as we are in our 60's now and this happened when we were in our 20's. We still laugh about that night!

Jim was one of the kindest souls I have ever known. It was an honor to know him. Our love, Mark and Patty Salerno

“ Sharon, Jim & Jean, Becky, T.J., & Ryan, I'm saddened by Jim's passing. Sharon, I remember when you brought him over to meet Mom & he graciously handled our brood. He was such a good, kind man. I can still hear "Country Roads". Love you all, Lou Ann

“ Sharon and family,
My deepest sympathy for the loss of Jim. I will always remember Jim with a smile accross his entire face and a laugh ready to share with eveyone. He definitely is in a better place. I am glad that Jim joined the Holtmann family.

“ Jim was a great friend and always a pleasant person to work with on the railroad. All of us will miss him, but he is in a better place as God has taken him home. We will all be with you later.

“ Jim was a great man. We were all very lucky to have him in our lives. His influence on the lives around him made the world a better place. He will truely be missed...God thank you so much for allowing Jim to be with us for the time that he was. Please welcome him back into your ever-loving arms. God bless Jim and the Janovsky family.

“ Leslie called me yesterday to let me know. I am so sorry for your loss. Is there anything that you need help with? Please have Becky call me if there is anything I can do to help. Even babysitting or helping with food?
Jim was a terrific guy...lots of fun to be around with his quirky sense of humor. Wry humor gets me every time.
I will be praying for your family in this time of loss.
