Jim was a Nebraska football fan and I was fortunate enough to spend Saturday with him at the game.

“ Not only the hummingbirds, he loved Gardening, he was just telling me about all the different peppers and tomatoes he was getting out of his garden. He was so proud his flowers! Going to miss his stories and jokes.

“ My sister Shelia planted a flower garden for my brother a couple years ago. It was filled with beautiful red flowers. The red flowers attracted hummingbirds. Jim was so delighted with the hummingbirds. He would sit on his porch and watch them for hours. If you talked to him on the phone or at a family gathering, you knew he was going to, at some time in the conversation, start talking about his hummingbirds. I am so grateful that my sister planted the red flowers and for all the JOY they brought him. Every time I see a hummingbird, I will think of Jim.
