“ I admired Jean’s gentle, yet strong, spirit. I can hear her soft laughter now, as she had such a positive outlook that she shared openly with others who knew her. It was comforting that she and Chip kept an eye on our cabin at North Bend. I have warm feelings about her annual asparagus-hunting trip, which she often shared with us. As a child, I also hunted roadside asparagus with my family and her trips brought back some fond memories.

“ You will always be in my heart Aunt Jean, thank you for your gentle, kind and patient presence when I was a kid and for the shared laughs and family time together on my visits home to Nebraska as an adult. We will miss you dearly...
