“ Jeff was a groomsman at my wedding after a couple of years of being great friends. I'll never forget all those times we had the whole crew at his house shooting darts, shooting pool, barbecuing, or just hanging out in the backyard having a cold beer! Those were some of the best times I had! Love you brother!!! Thanks for always being there for me, as a friend and as a brother!

“ Jeff had the kindest, most gentle spirit and he was an amazing uncle! His silly, playful demeanor drew the kids in, entertained them and made them feel loved and important. I'll never forget him driving from out of state to help throw Jonathan's 11th birthday party. That was an incredibly sweet thing to do and it meant so much to us. His laughter would fill the house when he was over and made everything fun. He made the world a kinder place for those he knew. He will be so missed and never forgotten. Love you, Jeff❤️
