

Jeffrey Scott Healion

June 16, 1955 - November 9, 2023

Jeffrey Scott Healion was born on June 16, 1955 In Harvey, Illinois to William and Patricia (Griffith) Healion.

Jeff was a family man. He loved snuggling babies, building Hot Wheels tracks, being silly with his grandchildren and making memories with his family. The door to Jeff's Man Cave, AKA, the garage was always open; literally and figuratively. He had a way with people so much so that he made friends everywhere he went and his presence instantly made people feel at ease. He was always there to lend a listening ear no matter how serious or light-hearted the topic.

He loved cars, especially his beloved Buick grand Sport and has always been a die-hard Jets fan. He spent many weekends watching movies with his oldest grandson, Landon. They loved watching Papa's favorite movies, eating special food prepared by Papa and exchanging random movie quotes in the voices of each character. Landon said the movies, food and the quality time with Papa never disappointed.

He was a great role model and made all of his grandchildren proud. He has touched the lives of so many and the world is truly a more beautiful place because of his time spent here on Earth.

Jeff is survived by his loving wife of 41 years, Eileen. He is also survived by his son, Sean and wife Michelle and their children Lucy, Alice, and Olivia. His daughter, Jennifer and husband Steve Everett and their children Reese, Grant, and Marin. His daughter, Lisa and her husband Ben Meyer as well as their four children, Landon, Leighton, Elliott, and Colbie. His daughter, Beth and her husband Aaron Haave and their children, Emmett, and triplets Ellsie, Henry, and Graham. His youngest daughter, Wendy and husband Mark Hebenstreit and their daughter Collins and granddaughter- to-be arriving this winter. Jeff is also survived by his four siblings, Nancy Barger, Gary Healion, Chris Healion, Ann Amaral and their families. In Heaven, Jeff will join his parents, William and Patricia, his sister Candice and his granddaughter, Logan Meyer.
