“ Our condolences to all the Whitver Family, I have fond memories of calling on Jeff and all his Technical Team at Lackawana Leather from 1987-1998 and years after too. Jeff was a tough negotiator for price and activity on the Fatliquors we were supplying him in Bulk. We all worked hard together and would head out for dinner and then he introduced me to pull tabs. We had some hilarious times. In recent years. I had the good fortune to run into Jeff again several times at Twin City Tanning at the Waterloo, Iowa and we had a great time reminiscing about the good old days. Godspeed Jeff. You will be sorely missed.
Yours Faithfully,
