

Jerry Lewis Lembke

October 7, 1947 - August 13, 2024

On October 7, 1947, Jerry entered the world at 10lbs. He continued to be bigger than life, yet a gentle soul. Jerry's quick sense of humor and positive outlook was endearing to all he met.

Jerry gained the skills and tools as the basis for his 47-year career at Valmont Industries. Through Jerry's self-motivation, dedication, and drive, he advanced to Senior Structural Engineer. Throughout his career Jerry earned several awards and recognition for his exemplary performance. However, most meaningful to Jerry was those he mentored and guided during his career.

Jerry found great joy in the simple pleasures of life including nature, animals, family, and friends. Jerry's beloved acreage allowed him to enjoy all these pleasures. A place he loved to share with all of us.

Jerry was a loving husband, father, brother, uncle, and collector of friends. We will grieve and miss Jerry but will take solace knowing he is finally at peace.

In Lieu of Flowers, Memorials are suggested to the family for later designation.

“ I am really sorry to hear of Jerry's passing. Although we didn't maintain contact during our adult lives, I would have liked to attend his funeral. As one of the Lembke cousins that was close to Jerry's age, we would spend time together during the many family gatherings. I was always amazed at his talent for drawing. I loved his sense of humor as well, - Jeff Lembke

“ Jerry is such a wonderful person, great engineer, nice mentor and caring friend to many engineers and other employees at Valmont. He is always willing to help young engineers offering advice, teaching skill, sharing knowledge & wisdom, answering questions. His creativity and talent are reflected in innovative designs like X-frame and ball joint foundation connection. His passion and actions to serve customers and support family & friends have made him a good friend to so many people. His sense of humor, fond of nature and discipline in exercises enriched his life and lives of others. Jerry will be dearly missed. Rest in peace, my friend! -- Donghui (Don) Yuan
