

Jesse Lloyd Haley

February 11, 1977 - March 21, 2024

Jesse Lloyd Haley, 47 of Elkhorn, NE passed away March 21, 2024.

Jesse was born in Omaha, Nebraska on February 11, 1977, to Terri (Shepherd) Haley and Terry Haley. He grew up and attended school in Elkhorn. Jesse knew how to work a room. When he walked in people took notice of his presence and big personality. Jesse was well known for his big heart and loved his family and friends deeply.

Jesse worked many jobs, from fast food, to factories, to spinning tunes as a DJ, but working alongside his Uncle Rick as a wiring technician was probably his favorite. Jesse's latest job was at Perkins waiting tables. He said he loved meeting new people, talking to them and hopefully letting folks know they were important and making their day a little brighter.

Jesse loved music and DJing at this house on Capital St. He always loved animals especially dogs and he found joy as a loving, involved and attentive uncle to his nephew Rylan, and his nieces Layla and Hayden.

Jesse stayed very up to date on current events, politics and the turmoil in our country. These things weighed on him and deeply concerned him. He spent the last 15 years working on a book about corruption and private goings on in our community and country. The family will work to publish it.

Jesse is survived by his parents, Terry and Terri Haley, sisters, Kim (Alvin Brown) and Jayme McCoy (Sean), nephew Rylan Andres, nieces Layla and Hayden McCoy, and bonus niece and nephews Savannah, De'Andre, and Tyler Brown. Numerous Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and friends.

Jesse was preceded in death by his grandparents Donald Shepherd, Twila (Welch) Shepherd, Lloyd Haley, Mona (Miller) Morelock, Uncle Dennis Haley, Aunt Donna Bissell, and special friend Joanna Santos.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Terri and Terry Haley who will make a contribution to the Metropolitan Community College 180 Re-Entry Assistance Program, a program that helps transition inmates back into society.
