“ Kim and family,

I'm writing this after attending John's service this morning. What an amazing service for an amazing man!!!! I'm sorry I wasn't able to visit with you after the service but wanted to extend my deepest sympathy. Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you.

Take care.

“ John was truly one of kind. He was such a good honorable man. Proud to know him and call him a friend. Kim and family our prayers are with you during this difficult time. We are so glad you and John decided to move in next door to us years ago. Chelsie and Tanner fondly remember staying at your house when we were out of town. We could not of asked for better neighbors and good friends. Gary and Joan

“ Dear Kim, John and Jordan,
Please know that Daniel, Katie and I are all holding you all in our hearts and in our thoughts and prayers. You were all a family to us for many years and were always there to support and be kind to us in so many numerous ways. I am so sorry that we have not been in closer touch over the past 23 years. Even though so much time has passed we love you deeply and pray you will be completely surrounded in love during this time. We wish we could be there with you in person. John was always so kind and thoughtful and generous. Blessings on you all. We are with you in spirit. Love,

“ Kim.....
I was so sorry to hear about John's passing. Kirk has told me so many wonderful things about John. He sounds like a wonderful man who was not only a great husband and father, but someone who made others feel good with his humor and kindness. I am keeping you, the boys and your entire family in my prayers right now. I know your faith will give you peace as you welcome him home to Jesus while mourning his presence on this earth and in your life. Hugs!

“ Kim,
I don't know if you remember me but you cut me hair a few years ago. I saw in the paper that John passed away. I just want you to know that I am praying for you and your family.

“ Kim, I am so sorry to hear about John. I loved to talk to him, especially about sports. He was thoughtful and kind - liking laying some sod for me in the backyard on a Sunday afternoon.

May God comfort you during this difficult time.

“ We send our deepest sympathies to such a wonderful kind family. Jose will miss working for John side by side. He was always happy and willing to lend a hand no matter how busy he was. I've never met such a hard-working guy. It's a shame his life was cut short. We will miss you John.
