“ Remembering Jack is easy to do. He had a flair and style that could have earned him bit-parts in Hollywood.

I met Jack 55 years ago and was privileged to go hunting and fishing with him. I was privileged to know his father, his very dear mother and his two brothers. I am glad to say he and I had some of the same friends in our age group. I am grateful that 54 years ago he introduced me to the woman who became my wife that has stayed with me 53 years. He was kind to my two children and always a warm friend to me and my wife Linda. He was blessed with a wonderful wife that my wife and I have been privileged to call our friend. Our visits from out-of-state were never complete until we had spent some time with Jack and Connie.

It is part of my personal religion that we are all children of the wondrous Creator GOD. I believe that each of us has our own personal religion--- the set of values and beliefs we live by. I believe that GOD programs us at our conception and that our D.N.A. predetermines the greater part of our lives not only materially but to some extent spiritually. I believe that GOD permeates all of us and the entire universe. So I believe we never are separated from GOD's embrace or concern. I do not know, and I believe no one knows, what becomes of our spiritual remains when it departs our body. But I believe that GOD is so immense and unfathomable that GOD has a plan that carries our spiritual remains onward. The next time I see a pheasant that is either walking or flying that turns its eye back toward me I will wonder if some of Jack's spirit is present. In my prayers I do not ask for material things but I do pray. Please GOD, if my prayers are relevant and GOD if it is within your will, please GOD give extra love and mercy to the spiritual remains of Jack Redmond.
