“ Mark 4:36-39 recounts the story when Jesus and his apostles were crossing the Sea of Galilee during which "there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship", filling the ship with water to the point that all on board were at risk of drowning. In these precarious circumstances, the apostles plead with Jesus, "Master, carest thou not that we perish?"

During the turbulent storm in your family's lives this past week, I suspect your thoughts have been similar to those of Jesus' apostles in those verses.

"And [Jesus] arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm."

It is our assurance that Josie is at peace and in the presence of our Heavenly Father. May you be blessed by the Holy Spirit with a great calm in the aftermath of your family's tragedy.

You are in our prayers and we are praying that Jayme, Cayden and Reagan will each make a full recovery.

“ Kyle and Jayme,
Words cannot adequately express our feelings for the loss of Josie.
We cannot comprehend what you must be going through but please know that we, along with the entire neighborhood at Normandy Hills, send our love and prayers. May peace and understanding come to you and Gods love comfort you and your family. We're so sorry.

“ Kyle and family, Johnny & Virginia,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your precious daughter/granddaughter. My sister, Marilyn, met Virginia in Seward today who shared with her and then she shared it with me. May it comfort you to know that your loss is shared by those who care about you. Look to Jesus for strength and comfort through this difficult time.
I am praying for you,
Carol (Schweitzer) Bennett
your neighbor and classmate, from years ago

“ Dear Kyle and Jamie,
I just wanted to let you know that my husband and I are praying for you. We are new to this area, having moved here from central NE last summer. When we heard of the accident our hearts were burdened for you. Our 15 yr. old son was killed in a car accident some years ago. God has carried us through and He is able to do it for you.

Sincerely, Lisa Roy

“ Kyle, Jayme, Cayden, Reagan, Chuck, and Jan:
Words cannot express the pain we feel for you. Josie-such a beautiful, innocent little girl was taken from you so unfairly. We pray that you can get through this pain and sorrow by the strength of God, your family, friends, and children.

“ Kyle,
We are very sorry for your loss. Your family has been in our thoughts and prayers all week. This terrible moment in life has reminded me how precious every day is with family and friends. Each embrace of my son lasts a little longer than before. I hope for you and Jayme's continued strength and love.

“ Jayme,

I was so saddened to hear of your loss and so very sorry. May you find peace and comfort in God's Word as it is written in 1 Peter 5:7 Casting all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you. and Matthew 5:4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

My prayers are with you and your family during this very sad time.

“ Dear Bluhm family. We cannot express the depth of our sorrow. Here is our prayer for you. Love, Laura Kuhl and family

Dear Lord God, Father, please draw the Bluhm family close to you. Please let them each know Your love and care for them. Please give them Your strength to carry them through, and bring them the comfort and peace that only You can give. Please show them Your light of hope and keep them strong as a family. Please give them Your wisdom in the days ahead. I know their love will never end for Josie, and please welcome her into Your safe and loving arms until they can see her again. Thank You for the gift of life that her family has chosen to give to others. Bless the doctors as they care for Cayden; guide their hands and minds as they bring the healing knowledge You’ve allowed them to have to help him. The pain and sorrow is great, Lord, but You are greater. Please grant these things as we come to You in the name of Jesus. Amen.
