“ Sorry we were not able to come to be with the family, but we were shocked to read of her passing. Home kids like to be together when we can, but sometimes it is not easy to do. I lived across the hall from her brothers and Darrell was close to my age. He would stop in at the lumber yard here in Arlington when he was on the river fishing and came into town to eat or get bait. I have a picture taken at the Beaver River home of she and Les - who I knew also, and I shall always keep that where I can see it every day as it is now and has been for several years. I sent information for my first room-mate Eugene Freeman because he new Nita and the brothers Terry, Charlie and Darrell too. Ruby and I visited Nita in her home so we could be with she and as many of you three daughters as would be there serving coffee and cookies to all who came to view and buy art work, which was lovely. She left a lot of her art work serving as placemats for tables that are still used today along with some other of her works of love. She was not happy at times while living at the Home as she and Mr Hartman didn't see eye to eye at times, but came full circle by coming back to live across the fence from the place she came to love. We shall miss her. Ched & Ruby

“ What a wonderful woman Nita was, I have many fond memories of being neighbors with her and your family. Helping out around your place, even helping to feed baby birds who's nest fell out of your tree. Mating our Siamese cats. Most of all enjoyed my art classes. Loved sharing time with her as a child it was a blessing to have such caring neighbors to enjoy childhood with.

Love Always and may God keep you in his loving arms during this time and forever.

“ We are very sorry for your loss and our condolences to all. The pain of death can be overwhelming no matter what the age. The Bible provides comfort during difficult times. We are promised at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that very soon "death will be brought to nothing." Then we have the prospect of being reunited with our loved ones right here on earth. - Psalm 37:10, 11. We hope this brings you comfort and hope.
