

Judith Louise Bruno

June 21, 1939 - January 6, 2021

In loving memory of Judith Louise BRUNO

Judith BRUNO was born June 21, 1939 to her parents Louis and Alta Cramer. She has two sisters, Carmen Housley and Joan Johnson. Judith was preceded in death by her parents Louis and Alta Cramer and mother and father-in-law Frank and Louise Bruno. Judith married Louis Bruno on August 13, 1954. They had been married 64 years and were blessed with four children Joe Bruno, Kathy (Keith) Butcher, Lori (Terry) Lee, and Steve (Karen) Bruno, 9 grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren along with seven nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In her younger years Judith and Louis owned a gas station. She also did house cleaning to help support her family. She retired in her early 70s. Judith was a stay-at-home mom to raise her four children. She was such a loving mother and great friend. She enjoyed making family Sunday dinners and baking, and making holidays special. She also enjoyed camping, fishing, shopping, motorcycle riding, and having friends over. In her later years of her life, Judith enjoyed going out to eat, going to casinos, singing to karaoke, going to garage sales, shopping, and loved being with her family and friends. Judith lost her battle to cancer on Wednesday, January 6, 2020 at the age of 81 years old

“ Your family is in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. Your mother is now reunited with our precious loved ones that have gone before us. I can just picture Nanna making them all her special spaghetti dinners that we shared every Sunday when we were growing up. Our Christmas' that we all shared together will always be wonderful memories. The times on the farms when your family would come over and we would all enjoy riding horses, then later we would be eating something my dad would cook on the grill, while our moms were inside making potato and macaroni salads for dinner. Your mom was always so happy when it came to those family gatherings. Your mom will always hold a special place in my heart. We still have her memories, and for that we should all be very thankful that she was able to be such an important part in all of our lives. I love my Aunt Judi and will miss her very much.
