

Judith Jean Haberstick

June 14, 1939 - September 18, 2024

Judith Jean Haberstick passed away on September 18, 2024 at the age of 85. She was survived by her son, Brett, her brother, Dave Morton, brother-in-law, Stephen Haberstick, grand-daughter Emily Kohlmeier, grand-son Ben Kohlmeier, and her great grand-son, Carter. Judi was preceded in death by her husband, Pete, daughter, Mia, and her brother Dick Morton.

She moved to Millard in 1967 where she was an early parishioner of Saint John Vainly Catholic Church, an elected member of the Millard School Board, and a successful real estate agent. She and her family moved to Minneapolis in the early 1980's where she continued to be involved in public service. There she was an elected member of the Bloomington School Board, League of Women Voters Board of Directors, a Bloomington based art museum. Her business interests continued too, where she followed her passion for antiques, opening several shops in the Minneapolis-Saint Paul area. She and her husband moved back to the Omaha area in 2016 to be with family.

She was a passionate advocate for women's rights and those underserved in the communities she lived in. She enjoyed being a part of her church choir, oil painting and pottery, various types of puzzles, entertaining, and traveling.

Memorials can be made to Millard Public Schools Foundation.
