“ Dear Rick and family, I was saddened to hear about your car accident and the tragedy that you lost your wife and mother just before the holiday season. I extend my deepest sympathy to you. Judy and I shared something else too we both had the same sister-in-law Cheryl Kottwitz. May God Bless You and grant you a full recovery. Rhonda Kottwitz Voboril

“ Dear Rick,

When I first heard on T.V. the tragedy that happened and the Shaneyfelt name mentioned, I hoped that it didn't involve you, Rick, or your family. Then the picture was revealed. I was stunned and could not believe this could happen to you who I've known for many years. No one on this earth should deserve what you and your family are going through. The good Lord always provides for those in need. In this case, the Lord will provide you all with love and strength and in time, the sting will subside.

Your friend,

“ I was saddened and shocked to hear about the accident that took Judy away from you and the world. I worked with Judy at Immanuel when I was on the float pool. She was always such a delight to work with and even after I didn't work there when she saw me at the Health Fairs, etc she always made a point to stop and say "Hi". She always had such a wonderful smile and it will be missed by all she touched. May God be with you at this very difficult time and may his love surround you.

“ My husband and I would like to convey our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of your beloved Judy. We would like to share with you something that has brought us much comfort at a similar time in our lives. John 11:14-44 shares with us the experience of Jesus resurrecting Lazarus here on earth before the very eyes of those he loved. We can only imagine the tears of joy when we too are reunited with our dear loved ones. (John 5:28,29) Judy will surely be missed by many of those who's lives she shared, remember the experiences you shared together and learn from them, hold them close to your heart and cherish them. May you find comfort from those who surround you at this very difficult time. Our sincere condolences to all of you.
