

Judy Ann Treadway

December 1, 1940 - May 8, 2024

Judy Treadway was born on December 1, 1940 in Douglas, Wyoming to Carl and Bernice LeBar. She grew up in Douglas along with her brother, Bill, and later attended Chadron State College, where she earned her teaching degree. Judy spent a few years teaching and later moved on to secretarial work, which she enjoyed.

On August 25, 1979, Judy was united in marriage to Jerry Treadway at Zion Lutheran Church in Omaha, Nebraska. Judy and Jerry made their home together in Elkhorn, and raised one daughter together, Kristi. They were long time members at Zion Lutheran Church where Judy was very involved in Rebekah Circle which included Bible Study, crafts, service projects, and mission activity. Judy also enjoyed watching Western shows, with Gunsmoke being her favorite, rooting for the Kansas City Chiefs alongside Jerry, and Farmer Brown's was her favorite restaurant.

Above all, Judy will be remembered for the friendliness she showed everyone and her willingness to help whenever she could. She loved her family very much and was so proud of her three grandchildren. Judy made sure she was present for every life event in her daughter's and grandchildren's lives.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents, Carl and Bernice LeBar and her brother, Bill LeBar. She is survived by her loving husband of 45 years, Jerry Treadway; daughter, Kristi Staiert; and grandchildren: Chad Treadway, Taylor Staiert, and Kiley Staiert.
