

Kae L. Myers

September 16, 1942 - December 28, 2021

Kae Larene Myers was born on September 16, 1942 in Volga, SD to Milo E. Janssen and Carrie E. (Canham) Janssen, and grew up in Miller, SD. On March 3, 1960 she married Marvin R. Myers in Waterloo, NE. Their marriage was blessed with six children, Kevin, Brian, Faron, Angela, Mendy, and Maria. Kae was an honest woman who tried to instill that same value in her children. They knew if they had done something wrong, they would be in less trouble if they just told their mom what had happened upfront. Kae had her real estate license, but she also held other jobs throughout her life, always, in her mind, in a supervisor role. (LOL) She was great in the role of supervisor because she was a natural problem-solver. If people went to Kae with their problems, she was quick to share with them what she thought they ought to do, whether they wanted advise from her or not.

Kae enjoyed traveling and she and Marvin especially loved to drive places together to see new things. She also enjoyed playing cards and tending to her garden. She loved to watch "The Sound of Music" and passed her love for that movie onto her family. Around Christmas, she always was excited to watch "Christmas Vacation". Country was her favorite type of music, but she also was a fan of Elvis. French dip sandwiches were Kae's favorite food and she also enjoyed the occasional Bloody Mary. Kae was a strong and kind woman who could also be a little feisty and outspoken. Her family will miss her fun and outgoing spirit.

Kae was preceded in death by her husband, Marvin Myers; mom, Carrie

Janssen; dad, Milo Janssen; and Donald Dayton Belau. She is survived by siblings: Judy Finch (Ken), Wendell Janssen, and Phyllis Foster (Terry); children: Kevin Myers (Mashell) of Ft Worth, TX, Brian Myers (Kathy) of Honey Creek, IA, Faron Myers (Laura) of Papillion, NE, Angela Myers-Medrano of Ft Worth, TX, Mendy Race of Omaha, NE, and Maria Vavra of Omaha, NE; 14 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews, and other family and friends.

“ Kae showed me kindness and sympathy during a difficult time in my life. I was surprised and grateful that she offered caring and kindness during some of my darker days. She barely knew me, but she treated me as a friend. Close friends with one of her sons during a war, I will always regard Kae and her son Faron as part of my family.

Our condolences to the Myers on Kae's passing.

“ Kae and I met at Gateway Realty, and became fast friends immediately. As times past she, being an avid hard worker, took on cleaning of buildings, including bars on the weekends, where I worked with her. We worked fast, and found time to talk and laugh. We had dreams, struggles, and knew we would be best friends forever. She was always on a new venture, and did her best to always improve life for Marvin and her beloved children. In my heart and life, she is the best friend a person could ever be lucky enough to have. I have and will always miss you Kae, rest now, you deserve it!! Love you always..
