

Katie Dreessen

November 28, 1919 - December 15, 2009

Katie (Bock) Dreessen was born on November 28, 1919 on the family farm at 144th and Maple Streets the 5th of 6 children. She attended District #57 country school through the 8th grade but most of her early years were spent helping with the chores around the house and farm.

Katie married Clarence Dreessen on September 28, 1952 at Zion Lutheran Church and to this union a son, Harlan was born. Katie and Clarence made their home on their farm at 180th and Maple St. until 1983 when they moved into Elkhorn. Clarence passed away in 1989 and Katie continued to make her home in Elkhorn.

Katie was the ultimate farm wife. She ran her household, raised chickens and helped with milking cows and a multitude of other activities around the farm. She enjoyed playing cards, gardening and canning the produce from her garden. Katie loved her family and was always in attendance at her grandchildren's activities. She was a strong, hardworking woman who spoke her mind. You were never in doubt about where she stood.

Katie passed away on Tuesday, December 15, 2009 at the Lakeside Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska at the age of 90 years and 17 days. She was preceded in death by her parents Eggert and Bertha, husband Clarence and siblings Lizzie, Hattie, Margaret, Henry and Welland. Katie is survived by her son and daughter-in-law Harlan and Teri of Yutan, NE; grandchildren Kyle and fiancée Vanessa, Eric and Amy. Nieces and nephews

“ I was so sorry to see that Katie had died. We always enjoyed her as a neighbor and had fun plowing her driveway! I don't know if you knew or not, but I stopped by to see her this summer when I was out for another event. I enjoyed visiting with her again and thought she looked terrific. Her hair had just been done and she sparkled. You were blessed to have her around to see the grandkids grown. I know she enjoyed them immensely. Blessings to you all.
