Keith Robert Feilmeier

February 11, 1949 – March 30, 2025

Keith Robert Feilmeier, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, passed away peacefully on March 30, 2025, surrounded by family. He was born on February 11, 1949, in Yankton, South Dakota, to Hugo and Adeline “Addie” Feilmeier. He was raised in Hartington, NE, before the family moved to Columbus, NE where Keith attended Scotus Central Catholic High School.

A gifted athlete and scholar, Keith played football and basketball, earning MVP honors while also working to earn money through various jobs, including delivering newspapers. He went on to graduate from Creighton University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

Keith began his professional career at Omaha National Bank, where he worked through college and later became Head of the Teller Line and Branch Bank Manager at the Woodmen Tower location. After years in banking, he transitioned into entrepreneurship, owning and operating many successful businesses, including Gilroy’s BBQ, Gateway Electronics Institute, Postal Service Incorporated (PSI) Group, and Gabriel Technologies Corporation. Since stepping away from entrepreneurship, Keith spent his retirement years working at Midwest Installations and Lowes as an internal remodeling project manager where he generated record revenue while pursuing his passion in home remodeling.

Keith was a devoted family man and an active community member. He volunteered his time with the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, high school youth groups, and coached a wide range of sports including basketball, baseball, football, and softball. Keith loved spending time in Steamboat, Colorado and at Lake Okoboji with family and friends, hosting many memorable gatherings filled with laughter, storytelling, and joy. He had a passion for the outdoors and enjoyed boating, water skiing, snow skiing, snowmobiling, hunting, fishing, and golfing with his children—and he always loved a great Forbe's steak.

Keith was a beacon of kindness and generosity embodying the true spirit of selflessness. His love knew no bounds. He cherished time with his children and created countless memories with his grandchildren.

Keith is preceded in death by his infant son, Jared; his parents, Hugo and Adeline Feilmeier; and his brother, Larry Feilmeier of Colorado.

He is survived by his loving wife, Judy, his children: Jennifer Feilmeier Kintzle and her husband Doug of Des Moines, Michael Robert Feilmeier and his wife Jessica of Elkhorn, Matthew Christopher Feilmeier and his wife Kim of Omaha, Jonathon Joseph Feilmeier and his wife Alyssa of Omaha.

Keith was the proud grandfather of eight grandchildren: Evan, Bryn, Jacob, Nicholas, William, Leighton, Saylor, and Benson.

He is also survived by his sisters: Joyce Merrill of Omaha, Judy Olive of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, Joan Lemley of Denver, Mary Micek (Tom) of Marion, Iowa, Sue Rudersdorf (John) of Castle Rock, Colorado

He leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and countless friends who were touched by his kindness, warmth, and humor. Keith's legacy of love, dedication, and joy lives on in the hearts of everyone who knew him. His life was a testament to the importance of family, generosity and making sure everyone around him was having fun. He will be dearly missed.

“ Keith was a charming individual whose company I always enjoyed. He made everyone feel welcome and appreciated and couldn't do enough to help with anything you needed in any way he could. He and Judy welcomed my daughter, Jessica, into the Feilmeier family when she married Mike and made her feel like a loved family member from the start. I just finished watching the memorial video that Keith's children made and still haven't stopped crying. It is a pictorial history of a life well lived with family that he loved dearly and who loved him dearly in return!

“ Keith was an absolute legend. One of my favorite memories was your him driving the “banana boat” to haunted houses downtown and I was scared to go in. So while all our friends went in/out of the haunted houses, Keith would wait outside with me and hold my hand.

Then there was our lagoon youth baseball team - the only team ever to wear shorts as part of the uniform! And Keith was our coach and loving captain!

But my absolute favorite memory was Mike, Keith, and my Dad spending the weekend at Pebble Beach and playing one of the most beautiful golf courses in the world together. The 4 of us having the best time ever. LOTS of good wine. Playing crappy golf. laughing our asses off and truly enjoying the perfect “father-son” weekend. Those memories I’ll cherish the rest of my life.

And the biggest lesson I learned from Keith - how to be a loving husband and present father. He was always there for us growing up. I always felt safe and loved in the Feilmeier house.

Seeing how Keith treated Judy and how he showed his love in their marriage was something I’ll always admire, respect, and try to embody in my own marriage.

Thank you for sharing Keith with us for all these years and memories I’ll cherish the rest of my life. I loved him like my 2nd father.

“Hospitality Heart”: Two words that come to mind to describe Keith, among endless positive sentiments. He was our Santa Claus in the midst of Boji summer days. He was our friend who invested tirelessly in making memories for others and meaningful experiences. He was our jokester who found a silver lining in the midst of trials. He was kind, noticing when someone needed a word of encouragement and a smile. We will miss you, our dear Keith - you have left an endearing emblem in our hearts, minds, and soul that transcends death and provides a glimpse of heaven. We love you, my Boji ferris wheel 🎡 friend and brother-in-law. I have never witnessed such love and dedication as you and Judy share. A rare example of true unconditional love and friendship. Judy and family, so well done supporting Keith through his life journey. You are all in our prayers.

“ I was honored to be Keith’s wife for nearly 53 years.he was the best husband and father to our children. He was also a fun and loving grandfather of 8 beautiful children. He told me everyday he loved me and that I was beautiful. He left me love notes periodically and as his illness progressed over the years, his handwriting became harder to decipher. But his love was still expressed. I am so glad I saved all of his notes. Last week, he was ready to join Our Lord in heaven. Godspeed my love until we meet again. We sure will miss you. We will always remember and love you.

*Judy,
Cathy and I met Keith only a few times, and then all too briefly. He struck us as a kind and generous man, and your tribute certainly attests to that. We're glad that you shared your life with such a loving husband.*
