

Kenneth Dean Cunningham

August 19, 1968 - December 18, 2021

Kenneth Dean Cunningham was born on August 19th 1968 to Kieth and Linda Cunningham

He is the oldest of three kids. As a young child he spent a lot of time with his Grandma and Grandpa Cunningham. Grandma Cunningham used to hand make all of Kenny's clothes. And Grandpa Cunningham taught Kenny his first word. Which was Alfalfa.

Kenny went to Elkhorn schools. He didn't graduate but did get his GED later in life.

Kenny was an expert cabinet maker. He worked at several cabinet shops but he always went back to T & T Cabinets. It is where he started his career and also the last cabinet shop he worked at.

Kenny got his love of woodworking from Grandpa Cunningham. Kenny could take any kind of wood and turn it into something beautiful.

Kenny also loved mechanics. He was always fixing something. A trait he learned from his Dad. Kenny could take anything apart and put it back together.

He was very good at playing his guitar. Grandpa Ray showed him the basics and he taught himself the rest.

Kenny was a bit of a wanderer. He spent his weekends out discovering new camping spots and new lakes.

Kenny married Sonja Lervig on October 10th 2017. They got married in

Omaha,NE

Where they lived until recently when they moved to Winslow, AZ in their RV.

They were both ready for a change and wanted warmer weather.

Kenny passed away at the age of 53. Far to young

He is preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, and uncles.

Survived by his wife Sonja, His brother Kevin and Sister Karie. and several other aunts uncles, Nieces and nephews and lots of family and friends.

Visitation will be Saturday, January 22nd 2021 from 9-11 AM at the funeral home in Elkhorn with inurnment immediately following at Prospect Hill Cemetery, Elkhorn.
