“ My sincere condolence goes out to the family during this most grievous time. May the God of all comfort soothe your hearts with his promise in the Holy Scriptures of a future resurrection. Jesus said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out!" Until this promise becomes a reality, draw close to God and he will draw close to you and sustain you in the coming days.--John 5:28, 29

“ I am shocked. I didn't talk to Kim alot but when I did, we laughed and laughed. To her kids, the pride of her life, you had the best. I am so sorry to hear of such a great persons passing, but God must have needed someone of her passion with people to do an important job. “ We are sad her about the passing your our mother. I lost my mom to a three month battle of lung cancer 10 days ago. I know exactly what you are all going through. Kim was always full of life and we all enjoyed her so much. Even though we met through work she talked highly of her three boys and her very special man in her life. I pray for all of you! I know time and prayer is the only thing that will us all through the loss of both our moms at such an early age. God Bless,

“ Duane, Kirk, Kody, and Kole. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time of great loss. Kim was the most wonderful, giving, positive person I have ever met. I would always think that if I could find 3 more of her all our needs at the school would be filled. All these years I finally realized that not one could be found. Keep your head up and know that GOD has a plan and all her pain has been lifted up to Heaven to our father. Keep thinkin she is watching and looking after all of you.
