Lawrence Patrick Curnyn was born on January 1, 1937 in Greeley, Nebraska to John and Marie (Murphy) Curnyn. He grew up in Greeley, NE here he attended the one-room school house that Grandfather Philip Curnyn built on the Homesteaded family property and where his sister, Kathleen taught. After Larry's father, Grandfather John Curnyn died in March 1940, Grandmother Marie (Murphy) Curnyn took the 3 youngest children to Omaha, where Larry finished grade school and graduated from Tech High School in 1955. Larry cared deeply for his family, even moving back to Omaha to care for his brother, Gerald, while he waited for a heart transplant.
