

Linda Kay Bedell

August 17, 1946 - May 9, 2022

Linda was born in Nebraska City, NE on August 17, 1946 to Ervin and Katherine (Snyder) Juilfs. She grew up in Yutan, NE along with her siblings Kathleen and Ronnie and enjoyed playing softball and volleyball. Linda was blessed with four children: Christine, Karen, Neil, and Catherine. She loved spending time with her friends and family and was so happy when she was able to welcome four grandchildren into the world.

Later in life, Linda moved to Arizona where she enjoyed gardening, bird watching and reading. She was a lifelong fan of the Nebraska Cornhuskers, loved listening to Elvis, and purple was her favorite color. Her family will remember Linda for her strength, beautiful smile, kind eyes, and contagious laugh.

Linda was preceded in death by her parents, Ervin and Katherine (Snyder) Juilfs; significant other, Robert "Lil Bob" Krzycki; and brother-in-law, Charlie Frahm. She is survived by her children: Christine Bedell (George King), Karen (Darren) Parillo, Neil Bedell, and Catherine (Jermey) Pulisciano; grandchildren: Kayla Parillo, Haylee Pulisciano, Parker Bedell, and Caden Bedell; and siblings, Kathleen Frahm and Ronnie Juilfs.
