

Lisa Ann Hert

January 24, 1971 - January 24, 2019

Lisa Ann Schmitz Hert was born on January 24, 1971 in Nebraska City, Nebraska to Ron and Evette (Bottcher) Schmitz. Lisa grew up in Nebraska City where she attended Nebraska City Lourdes Catholic grade school before graduating from Springfield Platteview High School in 1989. As a young girl, Lisa enjoyed reading, writing and painting.

Lisa married Henry Hert on August 8, 1994 in Las Vegas, Nevada and they were blessed with two children: Jeremy and Eva. Lisa and Henry lived for a short time in Gretna, Nebraska before settling permanently in Waterloo.

Lisa has worked at First Data, Publication Printing and most recently at DC West schools. She was a kind, loving and generous woman who's greatest joy came from raising her children. Lisa enjoyed being at home with the kids and spending time at their cabin. She savored crab legs, glass of Malibu with a splash of OJ and dinner out at Red Lobster.

Lisa passed away unexpected at her home in Waterloo, Nebraska on Thursday, January 24, 2019 on her 48th birthday. She was preceded in death by her brother Ronnie and mother Yvette. Lisa is survived by her husband Henry; son Jeremy and daughter Eva all of Waterloo; father Ron Schmitz of Nebraska City, NE; sister Marcy Schmitz of Nebraska City.

“ There are so many memories with my cousin Lisa. I remember staying at her parents house in Nebraska City when we were young. I adored Evette and Ron. Lisa had a record player and we played the 45 of Neil Diamond's "Sweet Caroline" over and over again. We sang it loud and proud! I will miss you so much Lisa!
