“ Ladies your Mom was one of the classiest ladies in the neighborhood.

She always had her cookie dough in the freezer and made us fresh cookies everytime.

She was so gracious and was the perfect model of a stay at home Mom. I always wanted follow her example but never was able to be like Lois.

My heart is with all of you and I know she and your dad are looking down and smiling at all of you.

Lois and Jim Thank you for all of the Wonderful Memories!

“ At a very young age, Mrs. Peery taught me what it really means to be a “neighborhood mom”...Be gracious no matter what may get broken. Be welcoming even if they have dirty hands. Be the one all the kids know is the boss.

She was the only woman I ever knew that spoke without saying a word. You just knew if you were in trouble or if you could watch MTV in her family room all day. Either way, you always got homemade chocolate chip cookies.
