“ I, too, am speechless. I spent time with Mark during the Unitrin-Amtrust transmission and appreciated his knowledge and humor. My condolences to the family and particularly, his son.

“ *Andrew and family,
As a fellow stacking family, we had the pleasure of getting to know Andrew and Mark over the last few years. Our son, Max, loves to stack and spend time with Andrew. We were so saddened to learn of Mark's passing. We know it leaves an unfillable hole in your hearts. Just know how much we are thinking of you and praying for you. Also know that your stacking brothers are here for you whenever you need them, Andrew.
Peace, love, and prayers,
George and Lori Bower, Max and Abby*

“ Mark's passing is unbelievable to me and hard for me to accept. He was a close friend that will be sorely missed by all who's life he touched. May he rest in peace until our paths cross again.

“ Virginia,

Paths cross, sometime run parallel for a time and sometime they merge into one. Mark was a brother to me. Our Alliance background merged our paths into one: theology, values and our memories.

It is hard to believe, hard to accept. Our conversations about heaven are a memory for me, for Mark, a indescribable reality.

My heart, prayers and thoughts are for you. I cannot image what you are remembering, reliving, returning to as you make your way through the changes you have been thrust into and are going through.

May our God of comfort comfort you and give you strength for the day.

“ I am utterly heartbroken to learn of Mark's passing this morning. He was an amazing dad to Andrew and a loving and caring husband to Kate, my best friend. He was an honorable man, a true Christian who had lived each moment with deep faith and sincerity. Thank you Mark! I know you and Kate will watch over Andrew from heaven.

“ We are so very sorry to learn of Mark's passing. We have been neighbors the past couple of years and my son has enjoyed playing basketball in the driveway with Andrew. I know how very proud Mark and Kate were of Andrew. Please let us know if there is any way we can help with the house. We're praying for peace and strength in this difficult time.

“ Andrew! I am so sorry to hear about your loss and I express my sincere sympathy to you. your grand mother eagerly want to attend the funeral but she is still not so much enough strong to make a long journey
But your grand mother and I will go to see you as soon as possible!

Bye!

“ Yesterday, I lost my friend Mark to cancer. Our boys have competed together for the last 4 years, and we are so fortunate to have spent quality time with Mark, Kate, and Andrew. Several years ago, our boys set a world doubles record together, and Mark and I were so proud! Fast forward, and Andrew is now one of the fastest stackers in the world, and I know how proud Mark has been of him! Recently, Mark and Andrew spent several days in Fort Worth with us on their way to the Junior Olympics in Houston. We had a great time at one of Mark's favorite restaurants, In And Out Burger, and enjoyed great conversations and amazing wine together while our boys stacked. Mark has been Andrew's rock ever since I've known him, and has taught many of us the right way to enjoy life fully. We will miss you, buddy, but will do everything in our power to help support Andrew.
