Mark Alan Winkel was born January 23, 1958, in Sioux City, Iowa to David and Carole (Block) Winkel. Mark grew up in Sioux City where he attended Crescent Park Elementary School and went on to graduate from Bishop Heelan High School in 1977. He later earned his associate degree in computer science from Western Iowa Tech. Growing up, Mark could be found riding his bicycle, unicycle, or his motorcycle.

Dawn preceded Mark in death in 2019.

Mark worked in Information Technology for a number of years for both Jebro and AalFs Manufacturing. When he wasn't working, Mark could be found camping, boating, skiing, taking a road trip, or fishing with his brother. He loved riding his motorcycle, or simply hanging around the fire and listening to music, his favorites being '60's and '70's rock and pop. He was a big fan of both the Hawkeyes and the Cyclones, as well as the Green Bay Packers, Kansas City Chiefs, and the San Francisco 49'er's. “ I graduated from Heelan one year before Mark. We were both band members. Knew Dawn from IBP/Tyson. Kyle is the same age as my daughter Andrea. Tara stayed with Kyle and Andrea when Dawn and I worked at IBP on Saturdays. Both Dawn and Mark have been taken way too soon. Sympathy and hearts to the Winkel family.
