

Marlene Joyce Ross

September 19, 1937 - October 11, 2008

Marlene Joyce (Wollen) Ross was born September 19, 1937 in Omaha, Nebraska to Howard William and Ella (Drews) Wollen. Marlene grew up in and attended school in Valley, Nebraska, where she graduated from Valley High School in 1955. As a young girl, Marlene enjoyed her church activities, especially teaching Sunday school through her high school years.

Marlene married Wesley Ross on December 17, 1955 in Valley, NE., and to this union, two sons were born; Mark Scott and David Anthony. The family made their home in Omaha for many years before Marlene and Wesley moved to Bennington in 1986.

Marlene was a homemaker for most of her life, and she took great pride in caring for her family. Sunday dinners with the whole family was always a happy time for Marlene, but she especially loved Easter time, and throwing huge Easter egg hunts for her grandchildren. Marlene also enjoyed photography and going antiquing, never knowing what treasures she may find. She always had a unique eye for design, and would love to go out with friends or family and have a good conversation.

Marlene passed away at her home on Saturday, October 11, 2008 at the age of 71 years and 22 days. She was preceded in death by her parents; Howard and Ella Wollen, and her grandson Tyler Wesley Ross. Marlene is survived by her husband Wesley “Barney” of Bennington, sons and daughters-in-law; David and Michelle Ross, and Mark and Donna Ross, both of Omaha, grandchildren; Anthony, Candice, David, and Katherine, and great granddaughter Lola.
