“ Marty,

Thank you for being a father and a friend to me when you didn't have to take me in or be either. You and Bek have been there for me through the worst and best parts of my life in that last 10+ years, a lot of which I truly don't think I could have made it through without you, or made it to without you. The love between you and Bek has been the love I've aspired to find, and the parents you are are the parents I aspire to provide my children. You've left such an imprint on my being at such a formative time in my existence that I could not thank you enough. You are truly unforgettable and I will adore you for the rest of my life. I hope wherever you've gone, that you are free of this hellish disease and that someone was waiting for you with a smooth glass of scotch. We love you so much.

“ Marty was special right from the start, First he won my sister's heart, second he wanted us wedding party guys to wear green socks :) and third we spent a great few days in Vegas! That is how Marty came into my life. While I am sad for his passing I am grateful to have called him my brother. Rest easy brother.
