“ Sincere condolences to the Pojar family. Martin was a asset of our military and always had a kind heart. He and his mom and family lived a block from our family in Beemer for as long as I lived there. The were very good people. We pray that they all will know we care and want to express our sincere sympathy. God Bless each of you with peace. Frank and Judy(King) Ruiz.

“ Virginia and family,

I was so saddened to hear of Martin's passing, my heart breaks for you and your family. As you know, he was a wonderful, caring man who treated everyone with respect and truly loved all of the staff and kids at Hillrise, we were all better for him being there with us. He will be missed greatly. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time.

“ Betty,

I just found out about your dad. So sorry. He was a great man. My wife just told me how she saw his obit and was telling our three oldest as they remembered him from Hillrise.
