“Mary was a kind and generous person. When I joined the Class of 1966, I was a country kid who really didn't know anyone. But Mary made me feel welcome. I was a part of the group and never felt like an outsider. That was pretty awesome for a country kid. Thanks Mary.

“Mary and I were friends for over seventy years. I have so many memories of years past. We would sit on her porch and look at the Sears catalogs for hours. We would each pick out what we would like have even though we knew we would probably never get. Hours were spent on “the upper street “ with games of hide and seek, red light green light, Red Rover, and more. When Mary won a bicycle from Koil radio, I taught her how to ride it. Mary was in our wedding and my son was the ring bearer in theirs. We bowled together, played cards with friends. So many years of fun times. I will miss her. Let her be at peace with her family now.

“ Mary took me for a ride after she got her license (2 weeks before I could get mine). Back then Maple Street and Hwy 31 intersected by only stop signs. And she ran the stop sign. Thank goodness I could laugh with her about that for soooo many years. She was a good hearted lady!! I will miss her laugh. She made me laugh just because of hers. She will be missed. But she's able to be with Steve, Chad and others she missed so much.
