“ Nancy and Scott,

I know so well that there is nothing that I can say right now that makes anything easier, better, or right. But I do need to share with you how many lives were touched by the few visits that Mason had to the recovery room at the Med Center. I am continuing to be in the recovery room as the kids arrive from radiation oncology and every single day this week I was asked "where is Mason today?" Nurses, care techs (nurse aides), anesthesia residents, nurse anesthetists, anesthesiologists--everyone is looking for him every day. And every face falls when they learn that Mason is pain free, line free, and running everywhere he wants to go right now. I know I don't have to tell you what a very special young man with a fabulous personality you have raised--strong work Mom and Dad. We miss him and feel fortunate to have had the brief opportunity to know him. You are in the thoughts and prayers of so very many right now! Take care of yourselves and that little brother! All of the staff in the recovery room at the Med Center

“ Andrew, Scott, Nancy, Susan, Terry, Bill, and family,

I just learned of this awful, awful tragedy, and wish I had the words to offer that could help ease the pain in the least. Please know my love and thoughts are with your family, and you are in my prayers. Sometimes life is unfair, and we don't understand why things happen the way they do â€#166; but we have to have faith that there is a reason behind it all, a good reason. Mason was an amazing boy, and he left his footprint on this life. I am deeply sorry for your loss and please let me know if there is anything --anything -- at all I can do.

Lots of love,

Brooke

“ I don't know if you remember me, but I went to school with Mason all 6 years at Springridge. This year I went to Millard, though. I just can't believe that Mason is gone - it seems like just yesterday when we were doing our science project together. Praying for you guys. Love, Anna Terrell
