“ Clayton and Corinne:

I just read about your mother's passing in the Omaha World-Herald. Our family lived on the corner 1/2 block south of your house and my recollections of your mother were that she was always very kind to us and that she could make a great dessert. One time your mother brought over to our mom a dessert that was made from graham crackers, whipped cream, pineapple and coconut. I remember it being so good that our mom got the recipe and from that date on the dessert was referred to as "Mrs. Chambers dessert." It was delicious. Funny that a Lenhart would remember food. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
