

Melvin Dean Growcock

July 25, 1939 - September 21, 2007

Melvin Dean Growcock was born on July 25, 1939 on a farm north of Valley, Nebraska to Russell and Mary (Hansen) Growcock. He grew on the farm and attended country school and graduated from Valley High School in 1957. Mel enjoyed sports, hunting and farming.

Mel married Sherron Sharpe on June 1, 1958 at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Valley, Nebraska and to this union two children were born: Mike and Lori. Mel and Sherron have raised their family in Valley.

Mel worked at Builders Supply for two years before joining Valmont Industries where he worked for 46 years until his retirement in 2006. Mel enjoyed fishing, yardwork, reading and painting. He was proud of his garden and shared his crop with everyone. Mel coached little league for many years, one which included a championship. He was a member of the Valley Volunteer Fire Department for 9 years and is a member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. Mel was a man with a wonder disposition, good natured and fun to be around.

Mel passed away on Friday, September 21, 2007 at his home in Valley, Nebraska with his family at his side following a long battle with cancer at the age of 68 years, 1 month and 27 days. He was preceded in death by his parents Russell and Mary, brothers Robert and Donnie and sister Betty Dahlgren. Mel is survived by his wife Sherron of Valley, Nebraska; son Mike of

Lincoln, Nebraska; daughter Lori Kuhns of Omaha, Nebraska; granddaughter Katie Kuhns of Omaha, Nebraska; brother Larry of Valley, Nebraska; brothers-in-law Bill Sharpe and wife Marcia of Omaha, Nebraska, Dave August and wife Vicki of Valley, Nebraska and Nick Sharpe of Montgomery, Alabama; many nieces, nephews and friends
