

Michael Lloyd Arington

January 25, 1961 - January 16, 2024

Michael Lloyd Arington was born on January 25, 1961 in Fairbanks, Alaska to Gary and Elaine Arington. He grew up in Dawson, Nebraska alongside his three siblings. Mike's mother passed away early in his life, and his sister and later stepmother were both there for him in her absence, providing a fundamental foundation for him.

Throughout his life, Mike's main interest was in helping others. Everyone could count on him to lend them a hand, and he would often go out of his way to help others without even being asked. He also found great enjoyment in treasure hunting at various garage sales and estate sales. Mike worked at the University of Nebraska Medical Center for 25 years as a lab technician and also worked at FBG Facility Services. In April of 2006 he was united in marriage to Cindy Arington and along with a loving wife, gained two children and numerous grandchildren.

Family and friends will remember Mike for his kindness and the thoughtfulness he showed to everyone. He truly had a heart of gold.

Michael was preceded in death by his mother, Elaine Arington. He is survived by his wife of 17 years, Cindy Arington; father and stepmother, Gary and Carol Arington; siblings, Patty (Terry) Miller, Dave (Garnett) Arington, and Barry Arington; children, C. Jason Phillips (Amy Norwood) and Jolene (Dan)

Osborne; grandchildren: Courtney Phillips, Tyler Phillips, Lyndzi Wisniewski, Emily (Danny) Gasiewicz, Airelle Osborne, and Cody Phillips; great grandchildren: Mason Osborne, Findley Madden, Israel Flesher, and Eli Phillips; many cousins, nieces, nephews, friends, and coworkers.

There wasn't a person Mike met that wasn't a friend.

“ It deeply saddens me to lose such a good friend. Mike truly had a heart of gold and put everyone's problems and troubles ahead of his own, He was always there to help no matter the situation. Mike helped me through some very difficult times this last year and would never take anything for all that he did. I don't think i would have made it without him.

I wished things could be different and his passing is just a bad dream but as Mike always said, "it is what it is". Mike, I miss you.
