“ *To all of Mike's loved ones,
I wanted so badly to be with all of you today! It would truly help so much when you can join other family members who are mourning the loss of our loved one Mike. I feel very blest to have had the privilege of knowing and loving Mike from the day of his birth. I know you will all find your comfort in your personal faith and in all of your precious memories of Mike. I send my love to you all---Aunt Doris*

“ So sad to hear about the passing of Mike. Mike was a wonderful person. He loved a good conversation, his carpentry skills were amazing - his house he built from practically the ground up truly demonstrated that. Always had a smile and we had some good laughs, his hospitality was over the top! Will miss that quiet voice and good times my friend. Say hello to Susie for us. Our condolences to the family.
