

Michael Thomas Norton

November 8, 1938 - December 29, 2022

Michael Thomas Norton was born November 8, 1938 in Omaha, Nebraska to Philip and Loretta “Sally” (Henningesen) Norton. Mike grew up in the Miller Park area of Omaha, where he was a standout athlete, including in his time at Omaha North High School, where he graduated in 1956. He also served as an altar boy at Blessed Sacrament Church where they said the Mass in Latin. After high school, Mike attended Omaha University for one year. He then served in the United States Coast Guard for six months from March 1958 to September 1958.

Mike married his high school sweetheart, Constance “Connie” Dinovo on November 21, 1959 at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church in Omaha, and to this union, four children were born; Michelle, Patrick, Ann Marie, and Kelli Jo. The family made their home in Omaha until moving to Elkhorn in 1972.

In Elkhorn, Mike owned and operated Norton Meats for many years. He then took a sales job with Braunger’s out of Sioux City, Iowa. Mike enjoyed numerous golf outings, and breakfast with his friends, but most of all, he cherished attending activities of his kids, grandkids, and great grandkids.

Mike passed away at the Shadow Lake Hillcrest facility in Papillion, Nebraska on Thursday, December 29, 2022 at the age of 84 years, one month and 21 days. He is survived by his wife Connie of Elkhorn, children; Michelle, and husband Tracy Erickson, Patrick, and wife LeaAyn, Ann Marie Johnson, and Kelli Jo, and husband James Chaney, 7 grandchildren; Jay Erickson, Jena Bailey, Curtis Norton, Sean Reep-Norton, Sean Johnson, Samantha Chaney, and Hayden Chaney, and 11 great grandchildren; Zakary Erickson, Hunter Erickson, Lillian Stevens, Margaret Bailey, Nellie Bailey, Joe4 Bailey, Grace Bailey, Giada Norton, Camden Norton, Parker Patrick Norton, and Sophie Reep-Norton, brother John, and wife Lynda Norton and sister Amy, and husband Scott O'Herron.
