Nancy Joan (Merryweather) Buesing was born on August 23, 1934 in Valley, Nebraska to Harlan and Irene (Penny) Merryweather. She grew up in Valley where she attended grade school and graduated from Valley High School in 1951. As a young girl, Nancy was active in Rainbow Girls and played the piano at her church.

Nancy married Harold Buesing on June 5, 1955 at the Baptist-Presbyterian Church in Valley, Nebraska and to this union two daughters were born: Cynthia Sue and Sally Ann. Nancy and Harold lived for a year in Champagne, Illinois before moving back to Omaha where they lived until moving to Riverside Lakes near Waterloo in the 1980's.

Nancy was a homemaker and stay at home mom but she was a woman of varied interests. She was a lifelong, avid Nebraska Football fan. Nancy enjoyed crochet and visiting arts and crafts fairs, traveling and shopping. She was proud of her children and loved to spend time with her family especially at the holidays. Nancy and Harold wintered in Sun City, Arizona for many years and recently celebrated 54 years together. Nancy came to be the family caregiver, caring for her parents and several other extended family in their later years.

Nancy passed away on Tuesday, July 22, 2008 at the age of 73 years after fighting a courageous battle with cancer. She was preceded in death by her parents Harlan and Irene and brother Jack. Nancy is survived by husband Harold of Waterloo, Nebraska; daughters Cindy Buesing of Lincoln, NE and Sally Harvey of Phoenix, AZ; brother Phil Merryweather of Birmingham, AL.

“ Cindy,
I'm so sorry for your loss. I know there are no words of comfort that can ease the pain of your loss at this time. Losing a beloved parent is a painful and inevitable part of growing older. I know you have a lifetime of memories to look back on and that your mom was there for you during the very tough times you went through. She was always such a strong presence. You have my deepest condolences and please extend them to your family as well.

With Love, Jill (Light) Flagel
